Choosing the Right Entity for Commercial Real Estate Projects

Wednesday, September 19th, 2007

Prince, Lobel, Glovsky & Tye LLP
 100 Cambridge Street, Suite 2200
 Registration 7:45 a.m.; Program 8:00 – 9:15 a.m

This "nuts and bolts" program, intended for new lawyers and commercial real estate professionals, will discuss the differences between the most commonly used types of ownership entities -- trusts, limited liability companies, joint ventures, limited partnerships and corporations -- with an emphasis on choosing the right entity for a particular project.

SPEAKER

Robert Schlein, Prince, Lobel, Glovsky & Tye LLP

Robert M. Schlein is a partner in Prince, Lobel, Glovsky & Tye's Real Estate practice group, with more than 25 years of commercial real estate and environmental law experience. He concentrates his practice in commercial real estate leasing, real estate financing and development, and environmental permitting and compliance matters. He is a graduate of Harvard College and Boston College Law School.
